Speccy pleases in lead up

Early March and Starspect had a jumpout at Bendigo and pleased trainer Gavin Beever with her efforts. Slowly away she just softly rated along nicely and made up a little ground in the run home. Back at Cumbre she ate up well and Gavin said as long as she keeps going we'll see her back soon.

In Other news

Lil Bro named Keep and eye out for Speccys half brother named as Grosvenor Tsar. The second Val of Star of Grosvenor will be trained by David Hayes.

Speccy 20 noms There are 20 noms for the 1200m Yarra Valley renewal race of Speccy for Sunda

Supreme Royal resumes The 3yo bro to Speccy, Supreme Royal resumed at Ascot last week for com 6th. He'll go around again in easier company at Ascot on the 21st March Starspect's half brother sold for NZD$26k at the Karaka sales to Graeme Rogerson. The colt will be retained by Stephen Autridge.