

Looking to the sky

Speccy failed at Wodonga after being handy. For the believers Nick Hall was very happy with her.

Earlier: Speccy has been nominated for Wodonga on Monday 28th May over 2050m. She has been entered in a few other races recently but the skys have opened up and races have either been abandoned or deemed unsuitable for her after heavy rain.

So ... with any luck she'll get a chance at Wodonga. It is a rating 78 and below class and she will get 54kgs.

Earlier news: Reece Wheeler was impressed with Speccy from the jump but she didn't finish off at Bendigo in the Mares & Fillies Premier class on Sunday.
