

Specy leaves Hospital

Starspect was allowed to leave Werribee Hospital on 31st August after 11 days of post op care.

Staff were sorry to see their friend leave and had grown quite attached. There was no problems with boarding the float and she strutted up quite freely. She travelled well directly to Kilorra and is now in good care.

Specy will be on an initial six week program of recovery being boxed and requiring constant care.