

Specy getting there

Starspect is about 4 weeks into her initial program of recovery and has been boxed with a bit of yard time to stretch her legs and pick. She's not that impressed with boxes and will be better off once the last of the bandages come off.

She was glad to see us and Lachlan.

She still has one bandage on and it is hoped that will be off within the two weeks.